TECHTAIK Monday, 17 October 2022 / 9:00 am CLT Egypt / Technical Analysis Daily Report

PRIME

- So far, the index has not confirmed the penetration of its resistance level of 10,045.
 Meanwhile, most of the index constituents have been trading below their major resistance levels.
- Therefore, our view will remain negative as long as the index is still moving in the short-term bearish trend.

- During yesterday's trading, the index already achieved its bounce target, after it hit the level of 2,197, which was the highest level in this session.
- In order for our negative outlook in the short term to change, the index has to cross the significant resistance zone of 2,234-2,280.
