

EGX 30 Index

EGX 70 EW Index

- The violent rebound of the support level of 15,750 is positive and supports the continuation of the short-term bullish trend.
- In order to be sure of the index's ability to continue its bullish trend, it has to cross the resistance zone of 16,600-17,000 at least.
- The abovementioned support level has become a stop-loss level for short-term traders.
- Violation of the previous support level of 2,800 supports the continuation of the short-term bearish trend, targeting the next support level of 2,700.
- On the other hand, we still see that selling risks are high at the current price levels in most of the index constituents.
