

EGX 30 Index

EGX 70 EW Index

- If the index re-tests the support level of 15,700, we believe it will be an opportunity for short-term traders to open long positions.
- So far, the index is still trading below its significant resistance level of 2,850, which indicates the continuation of its short-term bearish trend.
- We advise traders to focus on the following:
  1. Sheeni [PRCL]: It has been trading around a strong resistance zone of 4.60-5.00, which is not expected to penetrate in the near term.
  2. El Kahera Housing & Develop. [ELKA]: We believe the selling risks are very high at current price levels for medium-term traders. Therefore, we do not recommend activating the "selling" strategy.
