

EGX 30 Index

EGX 70 EW Index

- Although the index closed in the red zone, continuing to move above its current support zone of 17,100-16,600 indicates that its bullish trend may continue.
- Meanwhile, we prefer not to open new long positions and to keep the current open positions, unless the index succeeds in crossing its major resistance zone of 17,700-17,800.
- The movement of the index above its previous resistance level of 3,000 supports the continuation of its bullish trend, targeting its major resistance level of 3,060.
- We advise short-term traders to focus on the following:
 - If Cairo Poultry [POUL] continues to move above its previous support level of 4.00, this will push it to re-test the resistance zone of 4.45-4.50.
 - We expect for MM Group for Industry & International Trade [MTIE] to witness a correction wave, after hitting the current resistance level of 7.00, targeting the secondary support level of 6.00.
